

February 1, 2016

Dear Kreative Kids,

I hope you folks are having a great 2016! I sure am, thanks to all of you and your generosity.

I hope you heard the news! I am now a daddy! Mattie and I had adorable little twins a couple of weeks before Christmas. We named them Jingle and Jangle. Jangle was very weak and even though she fought really hard she was just too weak to make it. The good news is that Jingle is very strong and has even begun to eat on his own. He is staying with Mattie at Ms. Vicky's until he is totally eating on his own. I included a picture of Mattie and Jingle below. They are both so cute! Don't you agree?

I am working hard here at the Center educating visitors about the benefits of having bats around. Did you know one little bat like me can eat as many as 1000 insects, including those pesky mosquitoes, in as little as an hour? Just think how many more mosquitoes we would have if it weren't for us bats!

I sure hope you know how much I appreciate your support, especially now that Jingle has arrived. It is so comforting to know I have good, caring people like you to help take care of me and my family. I sure hope some of you can come by to see me soon. Thanks again for being so good to me!

Love y'all,

Bruce